

Reverse your 02 June 2003 ruling to allow media consolidation. In an era of multi-million or billion $ mergers, freedom of information and independent points of view are critical. We don't need the same homogenized version of information in our newspapers, TV, radio and email.